Itinerary : Fly 3 hours from Reykjavik, Iceland to Narsaruaq, Greenland. The hunting season is from the end of July through September. There options for 3, 4, 6 or 7 nights based on the flight schedule below for the Narsaruaq flights from Reykjavik. The 6 night stay is only possible in July and August.

Arrival day (day 1) Depart from Reykjavik, Iceland at 2:45 PM , arrive in Narsaruaq, Greenland at 3:45 PM (note time zone change), local time. You will be welcomed at the airport and taken by boat on a very scenic 21/2 boat ride. There will either be a short stopover in the village of Narsaq where hunters can stock up on personal supplies (toiletries, beverages) or this can be done upon arrival in Narsaruaq. It is also a possibility to take a helicopter transfers between Narsaruaq and the camp for an additional fee (takes 30 minutes). When arriving at the camp the guides and the staff will welcome the hunters with a hot dinner. In the evening hunters settle into the camp. If they wish, they can go to the nearest river and fish until nightfall.

Hunting – and fishing (day 2,3,4,5,6... – depends on the length of the stay) Hunters hunt the whole coastline with their guide until they spot the right trophy that they desire to take. Breakfast and dinner is served at the lodge, but while hunting, lunch packages will be brought. After the hunter has taken his trophy, the rest of the time can be spent fishing. It is also possible for the hunter to take another trophy, paid either beforehand or directly on the spot. Other hunting/shooting is also available upon request. We do recommend that anglers take some time off to go on sightseeing around the area.

Departure day (day 4,5, 7 or 8...) Breakfast and preparation for departure. Transfer to Narsaruaq airport. The latest check-in is at 3:30 PM, flight departure from Narsaruaq to Reykjavik at 4:30 PM, arrival at 9:30 PM local time in Iceland. At Reykjavik airport, you will be welcomed to Iceland and taken to the hotel of your choice.
